PRESS RELEASE

LECTURE ON KING TUT SCHEDULED FOR SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

The life and reign of Tutankhamen, king of Egypt from 1333 to 1323 B.C., is the subject of a free public lecture by Egyptologist Dr. Marianne Eaton-Krauss at The Cleveland Museum of Art on Sunday, September 16, at 1:30 p.m. Although Tutankhamen's tomb and its contents have received enormous attention, the intriguing history of his reign has been neglected. Dr. Eaton-Krauss will present as factual and detailed a picture of that decade as current research can provide. The sculpture shown here, from the collection of The Cleveland Museum of Art, is a youthful portrait of Tutankhamen's grandfather, Amenhotep III, whom the boy-king resembeled.
